Secretary's Report

Leif read the minutes of the December meeting.

Treasurer's Report

Brian provided the following account balance information:

The balance in the operational fund is $2948.41

Our budget should be OK if we have similar membership to 2017.

Field Marshall Report

Ray was not present at the February meeting.

Buddy Harlan suggested that people not drive up to the field when the ground is very wet as this produces ruts in the parking area.

Safety Officer

Bill Losey reported that there were no safety issues as there has been no field activity.

Newsletter Editor

Old Business

- The Freeze fly was a success, even though it was really freezing this year.

New Business

- Several potential activities were discussed at the February meeting.
 - Rodway Sterner suggested that we hold a flight demonstration for the boy scouts as Colten is in the boy scouts.
 - This could include both simulator and buddy-box trainer sessions.
 - John Anderson suggested that we team up with the New Garden airport and get involved with their activities such as:
 - The EAA Chapter 240 booth held on the first Monday of each month.
 - The Pancake breakfast
 - The New Garden Airshow
 - Aviation Camp
 - It was also suggested that we could set up a booth at the First Friday events in Oxford.
- Bill Brueckman reminded the members that the Wednesday morning breakfasts will be starting up again.
 - These are held at the Post House restaurant at 8:00 AM on Wednesdays, with flying at Johnson field after the breakfast.

New Business (Continued)

- John Anderson asked the members to be on the lookout for a pond or lake in the area that would be suitable for float flying.
- Buddy Harlan announced that while Garret is still in school is now a licensed commercial pilot.
